THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, ANN ARBOR
COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING
FACULTY POSITIONS

Computer Science and Engineering (CSE) at the University of Michigan invites applications for multiple tenure-track and teaching faculty (lecturer) positions. We seek exceptional candidates at all levels in all areas across computer science and computer engineering. We also have a targeted search for an endowed professorship in theoretical computer science (the Fischer Chair). Qualifications include an outstanding academic record, a doctorate or equivalent in computer science or computer engineering, and a strong commitment to teaching and research. Candidates are expected, through their research, teaching, and/or service, to contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community.

The University of Michigan is one of the world's leading research universities, consisting of highly ranked departments and colleges across engineering, sciences, medicine, law, business, and the arts. CSE is a vibrant and innovative community, with over 70 world-class faculty members, over 300 graduate students, and a large and illustrious network of alumni. Ann Arbor is known as one of the best small cities in the country, offering cosmopolitan living without the hassle. The University of Michigan has a strong dual-career assistance program.

We encourage candidates to apply as soon as possible. For best consideration for Fall 2019, please apply by December 1, 2018. Positions remain open until filled and applications can be submitted throughout the year.
