MEMORANDUM

TO: College of Engineering Department Chairs

FROM: Michael P. Wellman
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

DATE: July 5, 2016

SUBJECT: Promotion/Tenure Guidelines

Please distribute the enclosed materials related to the preparation of promotion/tenure (P/T) packages to: a) department faculty member(s) scheduled to be reviewed during the 2016-17 academic year; b) the reviewing committee chair; and c) reviewing committee members. The P/T Guidelines may be downloaded from the ADAA website: <http://adaa.engin.umich.edu/admin/ptr/>. Please note the new template CV and casebook submission process.

The Department Chairs are responsible for the quality of the casebooks. Casebooks that do not meet the standards as specified in the Promotion and Tenure Guidelines of the College of Engineering, under Section L, "Detailed instructions for preparation of casebooks," may be returned to the Casebook Committee for revisions. Casebooks that fall well below the standards and require substantial revisions that cannot be easily accommodated may jeopardize the candidate's case. Any casebook exceeding 20 pages (not including departmental letters, internal and external letters of evaluation, and the candidate's CV) will be returned. Casebooks for all candidates completing the departmental review, whether or not recommended for promotion/tenure, must be submitted for Executive Committee (EC) review. If a candidate chooses not to complete the promotion/tenure review process, the decision to rescind the casebook must be made BEFORE the chair submits the casebook to the EC. Prior to this action, the candidate must make an appointment with me to discuss his/her case.

Additional appointments (dry or funded) within the College require the approval of the other department. Joint appointments outside of the College require a formal joint review process. Because of the variety of additional and joint appointments in the College, this process may be customized to meet the needs of each individual appointment. Please contact me immediately to discuss any appointments of this type.

We have included a timetable in the guidelines to summarize the most important steps and dates in this process. Please make sure that you follow this timetable. An electronic copy of each casebook must be submitted via SmartPath by 12 noon on Monday, November 14, 2016. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at (64)7-7020.

By the end of October, the casebook committee chair prepares for the candidate a separate one-page evaluation that presents the committee's distillation of the casebook. Written comments to the candidate will include the salient aspects of the case, positive and negative, and a request for formal input from the candidate on the comments. This assessment memorandum is submitted to the candidate simultaneously with submission of the casebook to the Department Chair. The assessment memorandum to the candidate is also included in the casebook (C.5). The candidate may respond, in writing, to me with a copy to the Department Chair by November 14, 2016.

At the same time that casebooks are submitted to the College on November 14, 2016, Department Chairs should inform candidates of the department's decision to recommend or not recommend promotion and/or the granting of tenure. Please copy me if this notification is done by letter or email.

The EC will evaluate the casebooks in depth during December 2016 and January 2017. The EC often raises questions about the casebooks and will request the Department Chairs to respond to these questions with additional information or clarification in writing. Department Chairs may use their discretion in sharing some of the points with the candidates to get their feedback when preparing feedback for the EC. For example, if the EC had a concern over comments in an external letter, that information should not be shared. If the EC was concerned that the candidate rarely attended conferences, however, the candidate could provide additional information to the Department Chair on that point.

The promotion/tenure review meeting with the EC, Department Chairs and Associate Deans is tentatively scheduled for Thursday, January 19 and Friday, January 20. Please mark your calendars. A review agenda and additional details will be provided by mid-January.

Attached are:

- A list of promotion/tenure candidates in your department and their casebook committee chairs and members;
- A list of individual casebook committees for each candidate with casebook committee chairs and members; and
- Original letters to casebook committee chairs and candidates.

Please distribute as follows:

To Candidates:

Memorandum to candidate
A copy of the memorandum to the committee
The list of the candidate's casebook committee members

To Committee Chairs:

Letter to committee
A copy of the memorandum to the candidate
The list of the candidate's casebook committee members

To Committee Members:

MEMORANDUM

TO: Promotion and/or Tenure Candidates

FROM: Michael P. Wellman
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

DATE: July 5, 2016

SUBJECT: Approximate Timeline, Committee Membership, and Procedure Followed by the College of Engineering in Evaluating Promotion and/or Tenure (P/T) Casebooks

You will be considered for promotion and/or tenure during the coming academic year, and I would like to inform you of the process that will take place because your cooperation and assistance is critical for the preparation of the casebook.

I have attached the following documents for your information and use:

- a) A listing of the P/T committee members who are responsible for the preparation and timely submittal of your casebook; and
- b) A copy of the letter given to the P/T committee chair.

The Promotion and Tenure Guidelines of the College of Engineering may be downloaded at <http://adaa.engin.umich.edu/admin/ptr/>. Please note that we are using a required template for the casebook and that you are responsible for preparing your CV following this template. You should coordinate your schedule with that of the committee. In particular, please provide to the Chair of your P/T committee as soon as possible, the following items:

- a) A list of up to 5 names of potential outside evaluators. If there are potential evaluators who you feel may not provide a fair or impartial letter of recommendation due to a personal conflict, please provide this information to the P/T committee chair and the department chair, along with a brief explanation.
- b) A list of 2 to 4 names of potential internal faculty evaluators and 2 to 4 students (both graduate and undergraduate).
- c) A copy of your academic curriculum vitae (CV), suitable for transmission to the outside evaluators. NOTE: You must use the template provided by the ADAA office at: <http://adaa.engin.umich.edu/admin/ptr/>
- d) Provide a representative set of 4 or 5 of the most important manuscripts and/or other professionally creative products as discussed with your committee chair.

We have included a timetable in the guidelines to summarize the most important steps and dates in this process. The completed casebooks, in electronic format and original hard copy, with a written cover letter by the Department Chair, are due in my office by noon on Monday, November 14, 2016. Depending on the P/T process followed by each department, the departmental executive or advisory committee may participate in the review of the casebook and provide its evaluation. If you choose not to complete the promotion/tenure review process, the decision to rescind your casebook must be made BEFORE the chair submits the casebook to the Executive Committee (EC). Prior to this action, you must make an appointment with me to discuss your case.

- The committee will need most of the fall term to gather information and prepare the casebook. Any casebook exceeding 20 pages (not including departmental letters, internal and external letters of evaluation, and the candidate's CV) will be returned.
- By the end of October, the casebook committee chair prepares for you a separate one-page evaluation that presents the committee's distillation of your casebook. Written comments to you will include the salient aspects of the case, positive and negative, and a request for formal input from you on the comments. This assessment memorandum is submitted to you simultaneously with submission of the casebook to the Department Chair. You may respond, in writing, to me with a copy to your Department Chair by November 14, 2016.
- Your department chair will inform you of your department's decision to recommend or not recommend promotion and/or the granting of tenure on November 14, 2016. If this is done by letter or email, please make sure I am copied. At this step of the process, you are not allowed to appeal the recommendation of the casebook committee and/or the department. Any appeals of the decision are allowed only after the final decision as approved by the Provost.
- The College Executive Committee will evaluate the casebooks in depth during December 2016 and January 2017. The EC often raises questions about the casebooks and will request the Department Chairs to respond to these questions with additional information or clarification in writing. Department Chairs may seek your help in responding to EC queries.
- Each case is then discussed at a meeting of the Deans, Associate Deans, Department Chairs and the EC of the College, where an advisory vote is made on each case by the Associate Deans and Chairs for use by the EC in its subsequent discussions. All tenure cases (positive and negative) and positive promotion cases will be forwarded to the Provost's Office by the middle of February where they will undergo further evaluation by the President, Provost and a casebook review team made up of senior faculty members. Those casebooks approved by the President and the Provost will be forwarded to the Regents for approval at their May meeting. The official list will be printed in the University Record.
- The EC's final decisions will be conveyed to your department chair in early March. Your Department Chair will inform you of the EC's decision. I will send you a letter informing you of one of the following decisions:
 - The EC's decision to recommend promotion and/or the granting of tenure; or
 - The EC's decision not to recommend promotion and/or the granting of tenure.

If you have any questions regarding this process, please do not hesitate to contact my office. If you have any questions regarding the membership of your P/T committee, please contact your Department Chair.

Thank you for your cooperation and assistance in this important process.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Promotion and Tenure Review Committee Chairs and Members

FROM: Michael P. Wellman
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

DATE: July 5, 2016

SUBJECT: Evaluation of the Candidates
Details on Preparation of the Casebooks
Recommendation Letters

The quality of an educational institution is reflected by the quality of its faculty. In that context, one of the most important functions of our institution is the review of the performance of our faculty and their subsequent promotion and/or tenure. Some of the most important decisions for the continued excellence and vitality of the College of Engineering are those related to faculty appointments and promotions. In this process you have an extremely important role. You will be preparing all of the evaluative documentation and arriving at the primary recommendation on which your department will base its recommendation to the College of Engineering, and on which the College's Executive Committee (EC) will base its decisions and recommendations to the Provost. The EC needs and expects:

- a) a concise and forthright evaluation; and
- b) a high-quality casebook.

Casebook guidelines are available on our website: <http://adaa.engin.umich.edu/admin/ptr/>. Please note that we are using a required casebook template.

I want to bring to your attention items that are very important and helpful to you and the EC:

1. Always keep in mind that you are an evaluative committee and not an advocacy committee. Please report the positive, as well as the negative, so that your department and the EC can base their decisions on facts and objective evaluations of the candidate's contributions. The department chairs are responsible for the quality of the casebooks. Casebooks that do not meet the standards as specified in the Promotion and Tenure Guidelines under Section L, "Detailed instructions for preparation of casebooks," may be returned for revisions. Casebooks that fall well below the standards and require substantial revisions that cannot be easily accommodated may jeopardize the candidate's case. While the casebook is evaluative, the resulting letter of recommendation from the committee is expected to advocate a conclusion based on these facts. This letter is your opportunity to express your feelings on the case. Please note that any casebook exceeding 20 pages (not including departmental letters, internal and external letters of evaluation, and the candidate's CV) will be returned.
2. If you choose to initiate an early contact email message to potential external reviewers to gauge their availability and willingness to serve in this capacity, your email message must be identical to the one shown in Section F: *Email to potential external reviewers. (This email will be generated through SmartPath.) All reviewers contacted and their responses are to be included in the casebook.

3. When asking for letters from outside evaluators, please bear in mind that we are asking for evaluations and not advocacy statements from the candidate's colleagues at other institutions. To this end, your letter must be identical to the one shown in Section G: Sample letter for external recommendations in the Guidelines. The paragraph on confidentiality is a University requirement as well. Please note that these letters should explicitly state whether the candidate is being reviewed for tenure only. If the review includes promotion, the rank must be stated. Note: If using SmartPath to solicit reviews, the required solicitation letters will be generated automatically.

4. Please choose at least eight (8) outside evaluators with the goal of 6-8 letters in the final version of the casebook. Since the absolute minimum number required by the Provost is five (5) external letters from referees who have not closely collaborated (“arm’s length” or “at a distance”),* it is advisable to be safe and end up with additional letters. In choosing the outside evaluators a good rule of thumb is to choose half of the evaluators from a list compiled by the candidate and the other half from your own list of leaders in the field and provide these lists in the casebook. The final casebook must contain a minimum of two arm’s length letters from the department/committee’s list. While letters from persons who have served as a candidate’s dissertation/thesis adviser or major collaborator can be especially helpful (because they can be presumed to have a good sense of both the person and the work), it is also true that their own reputations are involved in the work being evaluated. If such letters are included, they are not “at a distance” and they must be in addition to the minimum requirement of five. See Section L.H. for the Provost Office additional criteria of arm’s length letters. Please indicate if the evaluator was recommended by the candidate or by the Casebook Committee. If outside evaluators do not respond to your request for a written evaluation of the candidate, please explain the reasons.

5. The EC expects the outside evaluators/references to be at or above the rank for which the candidate is being considered and be from institutions that we consider our peers, including comparable positions in a government laboratory or in industry. If this is not the case, you will need to explain why.

6. Along with your letter to the outside evaluators please send:
 - A current curriculum vitae (CV) of the candidate (must be in ADAA format); and
 - A representative set of four (4) or five (5) of the most important manuscripts and/or other professionally creative products of the candidate, as chosen by the candidate.

7. All external evaluation letters must be included in the casebook. To put the outside references into perspective for the EC and the Provost, include a brief, three (3) to five (5) sentence statement of background information for each outside evaluator. Briefly explain if any evaluators failed to provide letters by the deadline. The bios should include:
 - name and title(s)
 - institution/corporation
 - brief description of his/her credentials in the field of expertise, including well understood measures of stature such as: fellows of societies; members of the NAE/NAS; editorships; named/endowed chairs; and society offices
 - his/her relationship to the candidate (e.g. classmate, personal friend, graduate instructor, dissertation committee member, co-author, or co-investigator). See Section L.H. for the Provost Office for additional criteria of arm’s length letter.

* Guidance on what constitutes an “arm’s length” reference can be found at http://www.provost.umich.edu/faculty/promotion_guidelines/procedures.html

8. The candidate can submit a “stop list.” Letters should not be solicited from people whose name appears on this list.
9. On occasion a committee or department chair may receive unsolicited letters regarding the candidate. All such letters, whether negative or positive, shall be addressed and analyzed by the committee and included in the casebook.
10. Members of the committee should read the most important publications of the candidate, talk to students and colleagues, and arrive at a substantive evaluation to be conveyed to the EC.
11. To help in critically evaluating the evidence of professional creativity and collegiality demonstrated by the candidate, you should obtain input from at least two internal senior faculty members, to whom you should provide the same material sent to outside evaluators.

We have included a timetable in the guidelines to summarize the most important steps and dates in this process. Please make sure that you follow this timetable. An electronic copy of each casebook must be submitted via SmartPath by 12 noon on Monday, November 14, 2016.

1. By the end of October, the casebook committee chair prepares for the candidate a separate 1-page evaluation that presents the committee’s distillation of the casebook. Written comments to the candidate will include the salient aspects of the case, positive and negative, and a request for formal input from the candidate on the comments. The memorandum should not be a recommendation from the committee, but a distillation of the facts. Please see the sample letter in Section J: Example Memorandum from Casebook Committee to Candidate of the Guidelines. (Please do not use this example as a template, but as an example of the level and tone of such letters.) This assessment memorandum is submitted to the candidate simultaneously with submission of the casebook to the Department Chair. The assessment memorandum to the candidate is also included in the casebook (L.C.5). The candidate may respond, in writing, to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs with a copy to the Department Chair by November 14, 2016.
2. At the same time casebooks are submitted to the College (on November 14, 2016), Department Chairs will inform candidates by letter or email of the department’s decision to recommend or not recommend promotion and/or the granting of tenure, copying me. If a candidate chooses not to complete the promotion/tenure review process, the decision to rescind the casebook must be made BEFORE the chair submits the casebook to the EC. Prior to this action, the candidate must make an appointment with me to discuss his or her case.
3. The EC will evaluate the casebooks in depth during December 2016 and January 2017. The EC often raises questions about the casebooks and will request the Department Chairs to respond to these questions with additional information or clarification in writing. Department Chairs will use their discretion in sharing some of the points with the candidates to get their feedback when preparing feedback for the EC.

Finally, I want to bring the issue of confidentiality to your attention. Casebooks contain personal information and should be handled with extreme care. Please treat all the information you receive, and the final casebook, as confidential. If you have any questions on the format or any of the above, please do not hesitate to call me at (64)7-7020.

Please note that completed casebooks should be turned in to the candidate's Department Chair with enough time allowed for departmental review and forwarded to the Office of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs by Monday, November 14, 2016.

5. How would you evaluate [Candidate Name's] service contributions to the discipline; that is, <his/her> work on professional committees, as a reviewer of proposals or papers, as an editor, or similar activities?
6. Might [his/her] work meet the requirements for someone being considered for promotion and, if applicable, tenure at your institution?

[The following paragraph (word-for-word) must be included in ALL letters soliciting an evaluation of the candidate.]

Questions sometimes arise about the confidentiality of external review letters, and we do want to advise you that your letter will be reviewed by senior faculty at the University of Michigan. Because the University is a public institution, legal considerations limit our ability to assure confidentiality but it is our practice not to release external review letters unless required to do so by law.

We request that you return your review to us by [Date]. We would also appreciate it if you would provide us with a short biosketch, including a brief description of your areas of expertise and current research interests.

We realize that your schedule is full and that this may be a time-consuming task; however, we will be most grateful for your assistance. We have selected you because of your expertise in this area. Should you fail to respond, this will be so noted in the promotion record. If you need further information, please contact [Contact Name] at [Phone/Email].

- J. Example memorandum from Casebook Committee to Candidate (1 page maximum)
Please do not use this example as a template, but as a guide for the level and tone of the message.

EXAMPLE

To: Professor X
From: Casebook Chair
Date: November XX, XXXX
Subject: Assessment of promotion casebook

This memo summarizes the casebook committee's understanding of the key aspects of your professional record to date, with an emphasis on the time during which you have held the rank of [Assistant, Associate] Professor [with, without] tenure. This information forms the basis for the committee's evaluation of your contributions to teaching, research and service. Please review this information carefully. You may respond in writing to this memo, and your response should be delivered to [Department Chair] and Michael Wellman by [refer to guideline timeline for date]. Your response can be used to correct misunderstandings and to add missing information.

Teaching {sample paragraphs/sentences from a variety of teaching performances}

Your record in classroom teaching has been excellent. Your teaching evaluations and comments from students are outstanding and we congratulate you on receiving the XXX Award for teaching. We also commend your willingness to advise undergraduate projects and work with distance education.

Your teaching evaluations, particularly at the undergraduate level, are notably below the College averages. We note that you have shown some improvement in the past year through work with CRLT-Engin.

Research {sample paragraphs/sentences from a variety of research performances}

Your scholarly output has been excellent. We note that your published papers are with your Ph.D. advisor, but that your recently submitted papers are with your students. We commend you for the NSF Career Award, the best paper awards, and your ability to attract funding for your research. These are all positive indicators of the success of your research program.

Your scholarly productivity with students has been outstanding, your collaborations with colleagues are healthy and your ability to attract research funding is commendable. Earning an NSF Career Award, and your XXX, YYY, and ZZZ awards indicate excellent ability to support your students' research.

Your scholarly output has been significantly below the expectations for faculty at the College of Engineering. You have attracted research funding and Ph.D. students, but have published only xx research papers. At this point we note several publications in review or preparation and significant proposals pending, indicative of an upward trajectory.

Service {sample paragraphs/sentences from a variety of service performances}

Your service contributions are somewhat less than might be expected even for a junior faculty member. We do not encourage an over-emphasis on service at this point in your career, but a little greater contribution to your Department, College, or profession would be appropriate.

Your service has been appropriate for a junior faculty member. We particularly wish to congratulate you for your contributions to diversity through XXX and the YYY programs.

Objectives

Our objectives are to develop promotion/tenure casebook procedures for the complete electronic submission of casebooks, and to establish standard casebook formats.

- Format for Each Section of the Casebook

Font: Times New Roman or Times, size 11

- Format Content

The format content for the casebooks is outlined in Section L., "Detailed Instructions for Preparation of Casebooks."

- Electronic Submission

Casebooks must be submitted via SmartPath. For access and questions, contact Sherry Hall at sfolsom@umich.edu.

- Hard Copy Submission

For those reviewers quoted in the promotion recommendation, please indicate the reviewer by labeling a hard copy of the letters as Reviewer A, Reviewer B, Reviewer C, etc. Please use this copy of the letters to highlight text used for quotes and upload to Ctools and notify Sherry Hall at sfolsom@umich.edu. (Do not include quotes from internal letters. Do not label review letters not quoted.)

Once the ADAA Office submits casebooks to the Provost's Office, departments will be contacted to destroy their copies.

- The Electronic Casebook

The final casebook will be generated into a pdf document via SmartPath and copies will be provided to the EC, associate deans and department chairs (limited hard copies of the casebook will be made as necessary).

FORMAT OF PROMOTION/TENURE CASEBOOKS

- Length: Any casebook exceeding 20 pages, not including CV, department letters, internal or external letters of evaluation, will be returned.
- Font: Times New Roman or Times, size 11 (this does not include the MP CV format).

Instructional track only. A MS Word template is also available at:

<http://adaa.engin.umich.edu/admin/ptr/>.

- A minimum of five quotes is required. For those reviewers quoted in the three page recommendation, indicate the reviewer by labeling an additional copy of the letters as Reviewer A, Reviewer B, Reviewer C, etc. (pencil in upper right hand corner of letter). REMINDER: Please use the additional copy of the letters to highlight the text used for quotes. (Do not include quotes from internal reviewers.)

B. Cover letter prepared by the Dean

- The ADAA office will prepare this section.

C. Chair/Department Letters

1. Letter prepared by Department Chair.
Document the department decision-making process (i.e., vote by faculty at rank or higher, or department executive committee), the vote tally, and the chair's own recommendation.
Include a 2 to 3 sentence assessment on what impact the faculty member's research or scholarly work has had either within his/her own field or more broadly.
2. Letter from the Review Committee to the Department Chair presenting their conclusions and recommendation. (Insert text into casebook and provide a signed original to the ADAA Office.)
The letter must include the vote tally of the committee's recommendation. According to the Provost guidelines on promotion and tenure, "The assessment should be written from an evaluative, not an advocacy, perspective and should present a balanced summary of the strengths and weaknesses of the case. Be sure to discuss any negative reports or reviews included in the casebook."
3. Letter prepared by joint/additional Department Chair.
Required if candidate has an appointment in another school or department.
4. Optional letters from Review Committee members, if they disagree with the Committee's recommendation or wish to modify the letter. Absence of these letters will imply agreement with the Committee's letter. Insert text into casebook and provide a signed original to the ADAA Office.
5. Memorandum from the Review Committee to the candidate.
(1 page maximum)
Written summary to the candidate including the salient aspects of the case, positive and negative, and a request for formal input from the candidate on the summary. A recommendation of the Review Committee should not be included. The original, signed assessment memorandum is submitted to the candidate simultaneously with submission of the casebook to the Department Chair. Please insert text of the memorandum into the casebook and provide a signed copy to the ADAA Office. Please see the sample in Section J:

Example Memorandum from Review Committee to Candidate. Please do not use this example as a template, but as guidance for the level and tone of the message.

D. Curriculum Vitae

Candidate must use the SmartPath CV. The CV template may be downloaded from the ADAA website at: <http://adaa.engin.umich.edu/admin/ptr/>.

E. Documentation of Teaching

E.1 Committee's Evaluation of Teaching (Two page maximum)

Overall assessment of candidate's teaching contributions including: classroom instruction; supervision of graduate student instructors in undergraduate courses; conduct and supervision of laboratory instruction; mentoring of undergraduate and graduate students in research; advising students in the major; supervision of field work; and supervision of clinical and practicum experiences. REMINDER: For faculty members with interdisciplinary appointments, please comment on his or her contributions to interdisciplinary activities with regards to teaching.

E.2 Comparison Report

The department, not the candidate, is responsible for generating a Comparison Report for the candidate. This information is available from the Registrar's Office.

A Comparison Report offers more precise detail and allows the unit to select appropriate courses for comparison of the candidate's record with those of departmental peers. Key principles for generating the Report are:

- Group the same or similar courses that have been taught by five of the candidate's teaching colleagues. The courses selected for this comparison should have been taught during roughly the same time period. Provide a brief rationale (1-2 paragraphs) for the comparison courses and faculty selected for the Comparison Report. Note: If comparison data are not available for the same course, then select comparisons with similar courses in terms of level and size.
- It is permissible to group together different courses taught by the candidate if the unit believes they are similar, and then to establish comparisons to this group of courses.
- The Comparison Report will include either the word "candidate" or the rank of the faculty member whose E&E data you have selected for the comparison. Please do not include the comparison faculty names in the table.

F. Documentation of Research

F.1. Committee's Evaluation of Research and Impact (Two page maximum)

- This section should summarize the key scholarly contributions of the candidate, based on input from a variety of sources such as the internal and external letters, and the candidate's publications. Specific examples should be given, ideally with reference to the important papers. In particular, it should be noted that this is not a section in which to reproduce generic accolades copied from the external letters and citation indices.
- For promotion to full professor, there needs to be evidence that an international reputation has been established. Therefore, some letters from distinguished international scholars will be expected. In this section, the committee needs to emphasize the key intellectual contributions that the candidate has made to the field. For example, how would the field be different without the candidate's contributions?
- For promotion to associate professor, there needs to be evidence that at least a national reputation has been established, and that the candidate is on a trajectory for promotion to full professor. The specific intellectual areas in which the candidate is carving out a niche need to be identified, along with the evidence that the candidate is establishing a unique reputation in these areas.
- Specific contributions to technology transfer and entrepreneurship should be included in this section, if applicable.

F.2 Ranking of Journals

F.2.1. Candidate's own ranking of journals/conferences

- Include candidate's information here.
- Candidate may include a brief rationale for the selection of publication venues

F.2.2. Committee's ranking of journals/conferences

- Committee's qualitative ranking of the journals and proceedings in the candidate's list of publications, and implications of impact factors of journals if any.
- Comment on conventions of order of authors in the candidate's discipline (e.g., lead author last).
- If citations and the H-index are used, please verify with the candidate.

G. Documentation of Service

G.1. Committee's Evaluation of Service
(One page maximum)

Overall assessment of candidate's contributions to service including diversity and climate activities.

H. Brief Description of Credentials of External Reviewers and Relationship to Candidate

H.1. External reviewers (listed alphabetically by last name) who provided review letters

SmartPath will generate the bios for each reviewer with the information provided by the department. Below is information needed and the definition of arm's length reviewers.

Through SmartPath, designate each reviewer as either "arm's length" or "not arm's length" and indicate whether the reviewer was suggested by the candidate or by the department.

Teachers, advisors, mentors, and current faculty colleagues are not "arm's length." Co-authors and major research collaborators/former faculty colleagues are also not "arm's length" unless the most recent association occurred over 10 years prior to the promotion. We do not consider letters from persons who have served on a candidate's thesis or dissertation committee to be "arm's length."

When both an outside reviewer and the candidate for promotion are members of the same large cooperative/research group that publishes abstracts and manuscripts with an expanded number of co-authors, the outside reviewer can be considered an arm's length reviewer if he/she and the candidate have not personally interacted in the research effort. In these cases, provide a statement with the bio noting the absence of a direct collaboration.

The following information should be provided for description of the external reviewer:

- name and title(s)
- institution or corporation
- brief description of his or her credentials, including well understood measures of stature such as: fellows of societies; members of the NAE/NAS; editorships; endowed chairs; and leadership in professional society offices
- his or her relationship to the candidate; e.g. classmate, personal friend, graduate instructor, dissertation committee member, co-author, or co-investigator. Dissertation/thesis advisors, major collaborators, if included, are not considered part of the minimum count for external letters
- For Instructional Faculty Only (for the promotion recommendation)
A minimum of five quotes is required. For those reviewers quoted in the promotion recommendation, please indicate the reviewer by labeling an additional copy of the letters as Reviewer A, Reviewer B, Reviewer C, etc. (lightly pencil in upper right hand corner of letter). Please use the additional copy of the letters to highlight text used for quotes. (Do not include quotes from internal reviewers. Do not label review letters not quoted.) See Section K of the guidelines for submitting a copy of external letters.

Note: If a non-academic external reviewer is identified as being "arm's length," please provide justification that the title held by the reviewer equates to or is at a level above the academic rank to which the candidate is being considered for promotion.

H.2. External Reviewers who did not provide review letters

This list will be generated in SmartPath.

A listing of external reviewers, alphabetically by last name, who were asked to write a letter but declined to do so and the reason for declining. (Do not include biographical information.)

I. Sample Letter Sent to External Reviewers

The required solicitation letter will be generated in SmartPath.

J. Evaluation Letters by all External Reviewers

Include letters from evaluators outside the U of M (minimum of five (5) “arm’s length” letters).

Teachers, advisors, mentors, and current faculty colleagues are not "arm's length." Co-authors and major research collaborators/former faculty colleagues are also not "arm's length" unless the most recent association occurred over 10 years prior to the promotion. We do not consider letters from persons who have served on a candidate's thesis or dissertation committee to be "arm's length."

While letters from persons who have served as the candidate’s dissertation or thesis adviser or major collaborator can be especially helpful (because they can be presumed to have a good sense of both the person and the work), it is also true that their own reputations are involved in the work being evaluated. If such letters are included, they must be in addition to the minimum requirement of five.

We expect that all letters will be uploaded via SmartPath either by the reviewer or by the designated department user. If the letter is received outside of the SmartPath system, external letters may be accepted in the following manner:

- Original signed letters
- Evaluation letters sent by email:
 - If the text is in the body of the email (needs to be a university or business email address, the Provost’s Office will not accept personal email addresses); or
 - If the email attachment is accompanied by the original email within which it came (needs to be a university or business email address, the Provost’s Office will not accept personal email addresses); or
 - If the person only has a personal email address, it will be accepted only if the email is followed by a hardcopy of the letter
- Evaluation letters sent by fax with the appearance of an original signature (obvious electronic signatures will be returned)
- If a letter is received without a signature and is not delivered electronically, a letter or email message addressed to the ADAA or Executive Committee from the casebook committee chair verifying the authenticity of the letter must be included in the casebook.

Note: If an external letter is received outside the system, it must be uploaded to SmartPath by the designated department user.

K. Evaluation Letters by Internal Reviewers

- Faculty (include a minimum of 2 letters)
Provide a list of all internal faculty reviewers contacted.
- Students (undergraduate and graduate students, for a total of 6 ~ 8 letters)
- List all students contacted, undergraduate or graduate, and note whether the student was suggested by the candidate or by the committee.²
 - A minimum of two letters must come from graduate students.
 - A minimum of four undergraduate student letters is required and at least one MUST come from the committee's list and not a member of the candidate's research group.

Student Name	UG/Grad	Relationship*	Suggested by committee or candidate:	Letter received?

*Advisor, course instructor, research mentor, etc.

- Other personnel
- All letters received must be included in the casebook

² Selection of undergraduate students: Letters from a wide range of students are desirable. Therefore, letters should be solicited from students at different performance levels and with an eye towards diversity. The faculty candidate will recommend half of the names of undergraduate students, and the committee, through the department advising office, will identify the other half. Letters will be solicited from this cohort.

Appendix – Records of Communications

Sample emails will be generated here via SmartPath

- a. Include a copy of the email sent to all external reviewers.
(Insert text of email here.)
- b. Include a copy of the email sent to all internal reviewers.
(Insert text of email here.)
- c. Include a copy of the email sent to all students.

M: Excerpt from Appendix III of the College of Engineering Rules of the Faculty dated April 2013

INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IN THE LETTER TO EXTERNAL REVIEWERS

Associate Professor:

Appointment to the rank of Associate Professor is given only to persons of established professional stature who have demonstrated scholarly or creative ability, established a strong base of research and are superior in teaching ability.

The appointment as Associate Professor does not automatically carry indeterminate tenure. As described below, the tenure decision in the College is a separate decision from appointment or promotion but may be made concurrent with them.

Professor:

Promotion or appointment to the rank of Professor is based on a record of accomplishments and contributions in teaching, research, and service such as to qualify one as a national and international leader in his/her field. The appointment to Professor is formal recognition that the individual has generated professional momentum that will reflect itself in the strength of the College for the balance of his/her active career.

His/her contributions and judgment will continue to determine the pattern of engineering education deemed to be responsive to the needs of the future.

Promotions to this rank would normally be from previously tenured faculty. New appointments from outside the existing faculty normally will be without tenure and as with the other grades the tenure status will be determined independently.

Guidelines on tenure are as follows:

The maximum time a faculty member, other than adjunct, can hold non-tenured appointments at instructor and/or professorial ranks combined is seven years. A faculty member who has served six years and is not recommended for tenure by the Executive Committee at that time will be given a one-year terminal appointment. Since tenure depends in part on faculty requirements, no assurance of the granting of tenure can be given even to those whose performance is satisfactory.

Each year the Executive Committee gives specific attention to the total number of tenured positions in the College in order to insure adequate flexibility and fiscal responsibility. The current high tenured position of the College has prompted the Executive Committee to make the following policy decision:

The Executive Committee will in general not consider appointments to tenure at any rank until the full six years of University of Michigan service have been completed.

Departments are to prepare recommendations for tenure in the same manner as they do recommendations for promotion. Specific consideration will be given by the department and the Executive Committee to:

- The need for faculty members within the specific area of expertise of the faculty member under consideration;
- The number of faculty members who hold tenured positions in the department and the College at that time; and
- The qualifications of the faculty member considering his/her total record of accomplishment in teaching, research, and service.

In summary, appointments, promotions, and the granting of tenure are not automatic nor do they simply depend on length of service. All such actions must be recommended and made on the basis of demonstrated merit. It is assumed that, as members of the staff mature in experience, they will become more effective teachers, researchers, and scholars. To that extent the qualifications for appointment, promotion, and tenure will be progressively more exacting at each successive rank.

PROVIDED FOR INFORMATION ONLY – DO NOT INCLUDE IN CASEBOOK

N: Qualifications for Appointment and Promotion in the Several Faculties of the University of Michigan

Since the University of Michigan is responsible for maintaining high standards of teaching, research, and service to the people of the state in a wide variety of fields, it is essential that its faculties be composed of men and women with superior personal and professional qualifications. The following statement is issued for the guidance of administrative officers and of other members of the staff who are responsible for ensuring that all persons appointed or promoted in the several faculties are thoroughly qualified to discharge the duties of their respective positions.

Teaching. Essential qualifications for appointment or promotion are character and the ability to teach, whether at the undergraduate or the graduate level. Some of the elements to be evaluated are experience, knowledge of subject matter, skill in presentation, interest in students, ability to stimulate youthful minds, capacity for cooperation, and enthusiastic devotion to teaching. The responsibility of the teacher as a guide and friend properly extends beyond the walls of the classroom into other phases of the life of the student as a member of the University community. It also involves the duty of initiating and improving educational methods both within and outside the departments.

Research. All members of the faculties must be persons of scholarly ability and attainments. Their qualifications are to be evaluated on the quality of their published and other creative work, the range and variety of their intellectual interests, their success in training graduate and professional students in scholarly methods, and their participation and leadership in professional associations and in the editing of professional journals. Attainment may be in the realm of scientific investigation, in the realm of constructive contributions, or in the realm of the creative arts.

Service. The scope of the University's activities makes it appropriate for members of the staff to engage in many activities outside of the fields of teaching and research. These may include participation in committee work and other administrative tasks, counseling, clinical duties, and special training programs. The University also expects many of its staff to render extramural services to schools, to industry, to local, state, and national agencies, and to the public at large.

APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION

In making their recommendation for either appointment or promotion, the responsible departments and colleges will study the whole record of each candidate. To warrant recommendation for initial appointment, candidates must have given evidence either here or elsewhere of their ability to handle satisfactorily the duties of the positions in question. To warrant recommendation for promotions, candidates must have shown superior ability in at least one phase of their activities and substantial contribution in other phases. Naturally, persons who make a distinguished contribution in all aspects of their work may expect more rapid promotion than persons of more limited achievement.

Promotion is not automatic nor does it simply depend on length of service. All promotions are recommended and made on the basis of demonstrated merit. The University endeavors to recognize distinguished performance by adequate increases in salary and early promotion. For this reason a call to another position is not by itself considered a sufficient reason for promotion but may be one of the factors to be taken into consideration in the timing of a promotion.

It is assumed that, as members of the staff mature in experience, they will become more effective teachers and scholars. To that extent the qualifications for appointment and promotion will be progressively more exacting at each successive rank. In particular, promotion to the rank of associate professor, which entails indeterminate tenure, will be approved only when a person has given such clear evidence of ability that they may be expected, in due season, to attain a professorship.

Adopted by the Board of Regents, April, 1935, revised April, 1954
